

I firmly believe that Satellilte radio should be able to deilver to its subscribers the what ever the market desires. I chose to pay for this service just the say way I chose to pay for satellite television and cable. What is available as "free" over that air does NOT fill the bill as it were in supplying what I want to hear or see. The NAB needs to keep it hands off.